De Interes en Belle Glade

El South Florida Company tiene la franquicia para la recolección de la basura en el área entrera al oeste del 20-mile Bend, con la excepción del City of South Bay que atiende ese servicio individualmente.

Los comercios que los usan, se los cobra a razón de 25c por patio, 10c de los cuales se reembolsa a la ciudad, para el mantenimiento de los recordos, pasar las cuentas, y cobro de las cuotas.

49 ciclistas pasaron a través de Belle Glade este fin de semana, en el Tour-de-Traves-de-la-Florida. Set de los que completan pertenecen al Army y en las Olimpíadas que se llevarán a cabo en Mexico City en Octubre.

FLORIDA FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICT (El Distrito de Control de Inundación de la Florida) previene de escasez de agua.

Como los dos meses más secos del año en el próximo futuro, y la superficie del agua peligrosamente baja en algunas áreas del Central y Southern Florida Flood Control District, un aviso fue dado la pasada semana urgendo todo posible esfuerzo para ahorrar agua fresca.

Durante el pasado mes, la continua temperatura seca con poco o nada de lluvia, esta acelerando el declive en los niveles.

Los comisionados de la Ciudad de Belle Glade han renovado de nuevo el contrato de cinco años de duración que tienen con el South Florida Sanitation Co. para la recolección de basura en la ciudad.

TONIGHT'S the NIGHT

Tonight, April 18, 1968, the members of the senior class of Lake Shore High will present to the public its first presentation of the class play entitled "A Man Called Peter."

When the curtain opens tonight, the audience will witness the most provocative and compelling play ever dramatized in Lake Shore's history. The play is centered around a man whose determination and unmeasurable strength to carry out God's plan, which are met with many oppositions and obstacles. But with his indomitable spirit he is able to triumph over every threat. We call this man "Peter." Peter is a man of many qualities and talents. He will be portrayed by Johnnie Lusane. Peter is a man who believes that he should do his "best" in working in the behalf of the youth of his church. He is a very vigorous young man in his late thirties and very affectionate in more ways than one.

His wife Catherine, a woman in her late twenties and very affectionate toward her husband, will be portrayed by Vivian Berry. She believes strongly in her husband and his duties to the people of his church, but because of her illness is unable to stand beside him as a wife should.

Peter John, the Marshall's son, will be portrayed by our guest actor Ronnie Booth. Peter John is a very handsome five-year-old boy alert and loving, who wants his mother to get well again so she can do all the things they did together before she became ill.

Curtis Pierce, will act the role of Allan Talbot, a very handsome, rather sensitive boy of nineteen, who has his own ideas about life. His manner, at first, is rather nervous and preoccupied but as he lives a bit of army life he sees there's more to the world than what he saw in his own way.

Judith Bickle will be portrayed by Mary Nelson. Judith is a woman of fifty and a very dedicated sister to "her" church as she sees it. Judith promises to give "the audience" the best presentation ever as a woman who has definite ideas about almost every thing even her sister's life.

Helen Ray will play the role of Jesse, Judith's sister, a much milder woman than her sister. She is less decisive than

Judith and also the inclines to congeniality, but her self-centered sister keeps her in step. Susan, a pretty girl in her twenties, will be portrayed by Elnora Putnam. She seems to be in her own way rather with, drawn from everyone. She's a woman of simple dress but stylish.

Marian Grant, Susan's mother, will be portrayed by Shirley Vereen. Marian is a very attractive woman in her late thirties but her manners are crisp and authoritative. She has all the earmarks of the successful career woman. But in the outcome of the play Marian is a much happier and softer person.

Steven Grant will be portrayed by Ernest Clark. Steven is a mild-mannered man in his forties, who seems defeated by life. His manner is shy and apologetic toward Susan, his daughter, as if he were ashamed of himself. But in the finale he is much happier and a more self-confident man. George Yost will be portrayed by Lamar Bailey who is a serious minded young man in his early twenties. He is quiet but pleasant and likeable. He is also a man of very good taste.

Wilbert Harrison will portray the role of Joe Keating a rather small boy of sixteen. He is a very tense and thin looking young man and his clothing has a hand-me-down look.

Hilda a large and very unattractive woman will be portrayed by Sally Cameron. Hilda is the maid of the Marshall's who takes care of Peter John and the house during Catherine's illness.

So readers there you have a brief look at what each character in the senior class play will portray tonight. So don't forget tonight's night, time 8:15, place in the Lake Shore Gymnasium, admission: Adults $1.00 in advance and $1.25 at the door, and students 75c in advance and $1.00 at the door.

The members of the senior class would like to express their deep appreciation and gratitude to Mrs. E. Cargill, our director, for her effort and hard work in making our play a worthwhile and memorable project as seniors. Hats off to her for a job well done. May we make the best of what you gave us in the presentation of our class play tonight.

Helpful Hints
Here are some tips, topics, questions and answers I hope you will find interesting.
PIZZA BREAD
When unexpected guests drop in, try this quick and easy recipe: cut any kind of bread that happens to be in the house into pieces, spread butter and mustard, ham or salami or a hot sauce on the bread; top with any kind of cheese that's on hand sprinkled with paprika or oregano; and pop under the broiler for about three minutes. It's a hearty treat with your favorite beverage.

SINCE YOU CALLED
A mother who has been teaching her child to be mannerly on the telephone overheard her eight-year-old daughter answering a call last week: "I'm sorry, sir, the young lady said, 'you must have a wrong number. But would you like to leave a message?'"

Chariot in the Sky

The story began as a slave boy, Caleb Willows, attempted to run away from a plantation. His attempt to run away was a failure so he was whipped and sent to another overseer as a punishment. There he learned the art of tailoring. Caleb learned easily and taught himself to read and write. His responsibilities increased as he progressed. He was then sold to a new master, who lived in Chattanooga. Due to the necessity of troops, his master was called to service and Caleb managed the store. Later, the store was sold by two deputies.

Caleb left Chattanooga to attend the Fisk school in Nashville. He had no tuition fee so he had to work as a teacher-tailor to earn his fee.

After he earned his fee, he enrolled in the Fisk school. The Fisk school was just starting the summer and he joined the troupe when they left for Europe in the fall.

Tribute to the Late Dr. King

Listen people listen. I'm gonna read you a poem. About a man who lived good. But didn't live too long. He was born in Atlanta, Georgia. A poor boy without a dime. He found his way to many hearts. Preaching we shall overcome. He advocated non-violence. But died at violence hand. He was the most famous Negro in this great land. Talking about King. Martin Luther King was his name. Without his able leadership THE NEGROES will never gain.
